1 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2 3. This is an action for infringement of a federally registered trademark in
3 violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1); for unfair competition in violation of the 15 U.S.C. §
4 1125(a); for counterfeiting in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1117(c); for violation of the 5 Washington Consumer Protection Act, R.C.W. 19.86; for trademark infringement under 6 Washington common law; and for unfair competition under Washington common law.

7 4. The Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 8 15 U.S.C. § 1121, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338. The court has supplemental jurisdiction over 9 the state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1337.

10 5. The Court has personal jurisdiction over the Defendant, who has sufficiently 11 continuous, systematic, and routine contacts with Washington to establish such jurisdiction.
12 Wrongful acts of the Defendant alleged herein occurred in and caused injury to AIR802 in 13 Washington.

14 6. Venue in the United States District Court, Western District of Washington is 15 proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1).

16 BACKGROUND

17 7. AIR802 manufactures high quality wireless and cable products, such as high
18 power and long range access points or routers, USB adapters, antennas, and coaxial
19 connectors. AIR802 offers its products for sale directly to consumers and through distributors
20 and resellers.

1 8. Plaintiff first adopted the "AIR802" trademark for use in selling and promoting 2 its products and services in August 2005 and has used the AIR802 mark continuously in 3 United States commerce since that time.

4 9. Plaintiff is the owner of federal trademark registration number 3,380,827 which 5 issued on February 12, 2008 on the principal register of the United States Patent and 6 Trademark Office. The trademark is valid and subsisting and its registration has never been 7 cancelled. A true copy of this registration is attached as Plaintiff's Exhibit A.

8 10. Plaintiff has given notice to the public of the registration of its trademarks and 9 service marks in accordance with 15 U.S.C. § 1111.

10 11. Plaintiff's goods are sold on its website, air802.com, and by distributors and 11 resellers throughout the United States.

12 12. Plaintiff advertises its products in publications such as the directory for the 13 professional association of Wireless Internet Service Providers and using social media such as 14 Facebook.com.

15 13. Plaintiff has invested substantial time, effort, and financial resources
16 promoting its AIR802 trademark in connection with the marketing and sale of its goods in 17 interstate commerce. The AIR802 mark has become, through widespread and favorable public
18 acceptance and recognition, an asset of substantial value as a symbol of Plaintiff, its quality
19 products, and its goodwill. The consuming public recognizes the AIR802 trademark and 20 associates it with Plaintiff.

1 14. Plaintiff's AIR802 mark is inherently distinctive as applied to Plaintiff's goods
2 that bear that mark.

3 15. Plaintiff entered into a distribution agreement with Defendant on or around
4 January 2009, whereby Plaintiff agreed to sell its AIR802-branded products through the 5 Amazon.com web store and share sales revenues with Defendant. Plaintiff also agreed to pay
6 Defendant certain processing fees.

7 16. On several occasions in November 2010, Plaintiff formally requested in writing
8 that Defendant cease and desist from its infringing actions, but Defendant did not comply nor 9 respond to these requests.

1 20. Defendant has engaged in this conduct with the intent to mislead, deceive, or
2 confuse customers as to the origin of goods and the intent to trade on Plaintiff's reputation
3 and goodwill.

4 21. At all times during a consumer's attempted purchase of the AIR802 Antenna
5 Product, Defendant leads the consumer to believe that he is purchasing a genuine AIR802
6 antenna. At no time does Defendant disclose or make obvious that it will fulfill the order
7 using a Cisco Systems antenna in place of the AIR802 product.

8 22. Defendant has engaged in this infringing activity despite having constructive
9 notice of Plaintiff's 15 U.S.C. § 1072 federal trademark registration rights and despite having 10 actual knowledge of Plaintiff's use of the AIR802 trademark.

11 23. Defendant's unauthorized use of the AIR802 trademark in the course of 12 selling a competing product constitutes "palming off" trademark infringement in violation of 13 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1).
